THE CIRCLE FOR CHILDREN

HISTORY

Georgia's children are among its more precious assets. The Circle for Children has contributed to worthy children's organizations for more than 90 years. This volunteer charitable organization aids, encourages and promotes the education and welfare of children in metropolitan Atlanta and the State of Georgia.

Established in 1927 as The Young Matron's Circle for Tallulah Falls School by the late Mrs. Preston Arkwright, Sr. and Mrs. John K. Ottley, The Circle was originally organized to provide funding to Tallulah Falls School in Tallulah Falls, Georgia, as well as emotional support to its students. This school began as a one-room schoolhouse to educate rural mountain children.

In 1995, the membership voted to change its name to The Circle for Children. This change enabled the organization to expand its focus to serve other deserving children's organizations, as well as to fund scholarships for graduating Tallulah Falls School students and applicants from other beneficiaries in need of financial aid for higher learning.

Today, The Circle carries on a rich tradition of giving aid and encouragement to disadvantaged children in Georgia. We are in the unique position to identify organizations that serve the needs of at-risk youth in the State of Georgia. Our contributions help fill the gap between government and civic funding.

An additional benefit of the organization is the camaraderie and friendships built among members over the years. While working together in the spirit of volunteering, we have forged the bonds that sustain us as a committed, long-lasting charitable organization.

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

“To give aid and encouragement in promoting the education and welfare of children in the state of Georgia.”
